Your EAP is here to help

For issues, questions, and challenges both big and small, your EAP has resources to help with:

- Finding care for an elderly loved one.
- Parenting a child with special needs.
- Dealing with addiction and recovery.
- Setting retirement goals.
- Seeking work-life balance.
- Accessing mental health resources and information.

These EAP services are available at no extra cost to you:

Counseling with up to three visits for each issue, including face-to-face or online visits through LiveHealth Online, and Talkspace text or video.¹

Legal consultation with a 30-minute phone or in-person meeting, discounted fees to retain a lawyer, and online resources.

Financial consultation including a phone meeting with financial professionals during business hours.

ID recovery for help with reporting to consumer credit agencies, filling out paperwork, and negotiating with creditors.

Emotional Well-being Resources for emotional health and well-being, including personal coaching, webinars, virtual support teams, and positivity messaging.

Dependent care and daily living resources for information on child care, adoption, summer camps, college placement, elder care, and assisted living.

Crisis consultation with a toll-free number for emergencies and round-the-clock help.

Additional antheameap.com resources including well-being articles, podcasts, webinars, and tools for depression, anxiety, relationships, alcohol use, and eating habits.
